

REGULATION OF "PICCHIATELLI TROPHY 2023"

ART. 1 - The competition is open to all model makers without limits of age, both individually and organized in associations, with the exception of the members of G. M. Picchiatelli only.

ART. 2 - The exhibition is open to all categories of models in competition, coming from both kit and self-built. Die-cast and pre-painted models are not allowed.

ART. 3 - The participation fee is € 10.00 if done online through the website www.picchiatelli.org, and € 15.00 if done "on paper" at the time of delivery of the model. For the category "Juniores" (16 years and below), participation in the competition is free.

ART. 4 - Each competitor can present several models in different categories, for a maximum of 5 pieces per single category, with the exception of the Figurines and Busts categories for a maximum of 10; For the Dioramas category the maximum is 3 pieces. In the event that the same model maker has presented several models belonging to the same category, he may be awarded for only one of the subjects created, with the exception of any "special prizes".

ART. 5 - The models will be judged with an "open" formula (gold, silver and bronze) by a jury made up of members of the Picchiatelli Modeling Group and external experts of proved professionalism and impartiality. The jury's decision is irrevocable. The evaluation will take into account criteria of correctness and quality of the assembly, good and faithful realization of the painting / decoration, realism, contextualization and originality of the work. Participants can ask the organization for clarifications regarding the evaluation of their works and any advice, but only after the end of the event and refraining from statements or other forms of protest that could damage the proper conduct and prestige of the event.

ART. 6 - The organizers reserve the right to photograph / film the models in competition. The images / videos could be published on our website and our social media channels.

ART. 7 - The models must be delivered in closed boxes, accompanied by the coupon relating to the online registration or bearing the indications of the author, model and any club they belong to in the case of paper registration. We are not liable for damage to models stored and transported in inadequate or improvised packaging.

ART. 8 - It is mandatory to specify whether or not the model is attached to any base. The base must be anonymous, which means that, it must not bear any information regarding the author. On the other hand, the title of the work, name and historical notes regarding the subject are allowed.

ART. 9 - Competitors may attach documents relating to the models presented; in the case of entirely scratchbuilt models, the documentation is mandatory, in order to avoid an incorrect evaluation of the works.

ART. 10 - The organizers reserve the right to exclude models not compliant with the regulations or detrimental to public sensitivity, as well as move the works within the individual categories in case they are deemed incorrectly registered.

ART. 11 - The organizers guarantee, through their own staff, the surveillance of the exhibited material for the entire duration of the event, but decline any responsibility for any damage or theft or for failure to collect the models themselves. In case the modeler has no possibility to be present at the end of the show to collect his own works, please promptly notify the organizers.

ART. 12 - By signing the participation form, each participant in the competition undertakes to fully accept these regulations and to collaborate with the organization during the delivery and collection of the models. The data provided in the form remain confidential and processed in accordance with Directive 95/46 / EC of the European Parliament.
